Re: LESLIE ANN HAYMOND
SSN: [REDACTED] 9601

Dear Ms. Haymond:

We cannot send you a copy of this person's application for a Social Security number. There is no information available to us that indicates this person is deceased.

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a(b)) restricts disclosure of the information you requested. We do not disclose to the public personal information from our records about living individuals unless disclosure would serve the public interest to a degree that outweighs the individual's right to privacy. The only public interest we can consider is whether the information would improve public oversight and public accountability by giving the public insight into an agency's performance of its duties. I cannot find that disclosing this information would provide any such insight. This policy is consistent with the Freedom of Information Act, which exempts from its requirements any disclosure that would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6)).

Thank you for your payment to cover the cost of searching our records. If you can send proof of death for this individual, we can provide the record at no additional charge.

If you disagree with this decision, you may request a review. Mail your appeal within 30 days after you receive this letter to the Social Security Administration, Office of Privacy and Disclosure, 617 Altmeyer Building, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21235. Mark the envelope "Freedom of Information Appeal."

Sincerely,
